To whom it may concern:

Mel and his staff played an integral part in negotiating and helping me close on a recent deal that has helped me expand my footprint and really grow my business. From the initial contact, through the close of the sale, Mel was available at all hours of the day, 7-days a week to answer my questions and get data I needed to close the deal.

I have found that these types of negotiations can be difficult and contentious but Mel does a great job in working with both parties to deliver a win-win for everybody. I will definitely use Mel again and recommend him to anyone considering buying or selling their agency.
